Elgar and Beethoven

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Ryan Bancroft, conductor
Hélène Grimaud, piano

Caroline SHAW Entr'acte
BEETHOVEN Piano Concerto No. 4
ELGAR Enigma Variations

Ryan Bancroft leads the many moods of Edward Elgar's musical puzzle. Enigma Variations transforms its central theme into a personality sketch of Elgar's friends, ranging from playful or eccentric to majestic and noble.

AUG 22 8PM

Chris Thile and Appalachian Spring

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Teddy Abrams, conductor
Chris Thile, mandolin

Jonathan Bailey HOLLAND new work
(world premiere, LA Phil commission)
Chris THILE Mandolin Concerto
(West Coast premiere, LA Phil commission)

Teddy Abrams leads a concert of familiar and brand-new American music, including Aaron Copland's ballet suite and a new mandolin concerto by the "genre-defying musical genius" (NPR) Chris Thile.

SEPT 5 8PM

Grupo Corpo

Francisco CORTÉS-ÁLVAREZ La Serpiente de Colores (LA Phil commission)
Arturo MÁRQUEZ Concierto de Otoño
GINASTERA Estancia

Brazilian dance company Grupo Corpo joins Dudamel and the orchestra for this rare full performance of Ginastera's ballet that tells a love story set against the landscape of disappearing Argentine gaucho culture.

AUG 1 8PM

All-Rachmaninoff

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Shiyeon Sung, conductor
Yunchan Lim, piano

RACHMANINOFF Piano Concerto No. 3
RACHMANINOFF Symphonic Dances

A viral video of 18-year-old Yunchan Lim playing Rachmaninoff's famously challenging Third Concerto amassed nearly 10 million views. The Cliburn Gold Medalist reprises that performance, and Shiyeon Sung conducts Rachmaninoff's final orchestral work.

AUG 15 8PM

Symphonie fantastique

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Jonathon Heyward, conductor
Jean-Yves Thibaudet, piano

L. BOULANGER D'un matin de printemps
RAVEL Piano Concerto in G
BERLIOZ Symphonie fantastique

Jonathon Heyward illuminates a night of enchanting French music, featuring Berlioz' radical fantasy about an artist consumed by love, passion ... and opium-induced fever dreams. Jean-Yves Thibaudet joins the orchestra for glittering Ravel.

PACHO FLORES

AUG 29 8PM

Beethoven at the Bowl

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Simone Menezes, conductor
Clara-Jumi Kang, violin

BEETHOVEN Violin Concerto
BEETHOVEN Symphony No. 3, "Eroica"

Two Beethoven favorites add up to a perfect night out when violinist Clara-Jumi Kang performs the composer's transcendent concerto and Simone Menezes leads the LA Phil in the heroic and revolutionary Third Symphony.

AUG 3 8PM

A Live Presentation of 2001: A Space Odyssey

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Caleb Young, conductor
Los Angeles Master Chorale
Grant Gershon, Artistic Director
Jenny Wong, Associate Artistic Director

2001: A Space Odyssey

Stanley Kubrick's sci-fi epic 2001: A Space Odyssey was a landmark in 1960s film that has topped many critics' lists for greatest films of all time and cleverly uses classical music against celestial imagery.

Presented in association with Warner Bros., the Southbank Centre London, and the British Film Institute

AUG 17 8PM

Shostakovich and Dvořák

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Anna Rakitina, conductor
Sterling Elliott, cello

DVOŘÁK Cello Concerto
SHOSTAKOVICH Symphony No. 5

Melodic and wistful, earthy and passionate—Dvořák's Cello Concerto is one of the most popular pieces of its kind ever written. Capping off the evening, Anna Rakitina leads Shostakovich's thunderous and powerful Fifth Symphony.

AUG 31 8PM

The Four Seasons

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Gemma New, conductor
Nathan Cole, violin

Jessie MONTGOMERY Shift, Change, Turn
TCHAIKOVSKY Selections from The Seasons
VIVALDI The Four Seasons

Three composers, centuries apart, offer their interpretations of the seasons, concluding with Vivaldi's famous concertos that cleverly paint the passage of time from thundering spring storms to a serene winter day.

TH2 / 5 THURSDAY EVENINGS

JULY 13 8PM

An Ellington Celebration

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Gustavo Dudamel, conductor

Gustavo Dudamel and the LA Phil pay tribute to one of the most prolific American artists of his era, showcasing Duke Ellington's range from classic songs to symphonic compositions.

JULY 27 8PM

Stéphane Denève, conductor
Rachel Barton Pine, violin

John WILLIAMS The Book Thief
Billy CHILDS Violin Concerto No. 2
MUSSORGSKY (arr. Ravel) Pictures at an Exhibition

Stéphane Denève and the LA Phil paint with sound the vivid vignettes imagined in Mussorgsky's Pictures. Violinist Rachel Barton Pine, "an exciting, boundary-defying performer" (The Washington Post), plays Billy Childs' concerto.

AUG 10 8PM

Sibelius and Grieg

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Tarmo Peltokoski, conductor
Anton Mejias, piano

Kaija SAARIAHO Ciel d'hiver
GRIEG Piano Concerto
SIBELIUS Symphony No. 2

In an evening with Nordic flair, Anton Mejias performs the Norwegian Edvard Grieg's tour-de-force and wildly popular Piano Concerto, and Tarmo Peltokoski leads music by two of Finland's greatest composers.

AUG 24 8PM

Joe Hisaishi and La mer

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Joe Hisaishi, conductor

Joe HISAISHI Symphonic Variation "Merry Go-Round" from Howl's Moving Castle · Saka no Ue no Kumo · Princess Mononoke Suite · DA·MA·SHI·E
DEBUSSY La mer

The multi-talented Joe Hisaishi has composed more than 100 film scores and is best known as the musical mind behind nearly all of famed Japanese animation director Hayao Miyazaki's films with Studio Ghibli. Hisaishi leads the LA Phil in selections of his own music—including his evocative scores for landmark anime films Howl's Moving Castle and Princess Mononoke—as well as Debussy's sea-inspired, Impressionistic La mer.

SAT ONLY — AUG 12 8PM

Carla Morrison

Grammy-nominated and three-time Latin Grammy-winning artist Carla Morrison has had an explosive year following the release of her highly anticipated album El Renacimiento. While her style is still rooted in her beloved acoustic-heavy sound, she showcases her ability to effortlessly venture into a larger pop realm with versatility and depth.

AUG 25-26 8PM

Culture Club

When you think of the sounds of the 1980s, you think of Culture Club. The songs are unforgettable: "Karma Chameleon," "Do You Really Want to Hurt Me," "I'll Tumble 4 Ya," and so many more brought together new wave with blue-eyed soul and touches of reggae, calypso, salsa, and country. Be there when the Grammy winners who defined an era return to the Bowl.

SEPT 8-9 8PM

Fireworks Finale: Maxwell

Three-time Grammy winner Maxwell sets it off in our Fireworks Finale, hooking his supple and soulful R&B—and three decades of hits—to elegant backing from his veteran touring band.

HERBIE HANCOCK

DIANA KRALL

CHARLIE WILSON

GLADYS KNIGHT

WE1 / 4 WEDNESDAY EVENINGS

JULY 19 8PM

Diana Krall

Diana Krall's elegance and nuance have made her one of the most celebrated and successful jazz singers of our time. She's the winner of two Grammy Awards and 10 Juno Awards, a testament to what the Los Angeles Times calls a "career guided by the notion that there's plenty of power in grace and understatement." Be swept up on a beautiful night at the Bowl.

AUG 16 8PM

Gladys Knight

Gladys Knight is an American icon whose "Midnight Train to Georgia" is one of the most celebrated songs of the 20th century. She's had No. 1 hits in pop, gospel, R&B, and adult contemporary, along with seven Grammy victories. Both as a solo artist and with The Pips, she's been bringing audiences to their feet for over 50 years, with hits like "If I Were Your Woman," "Best Thing That Ever Happened to Me," "I Heard It Through the Grapevine," and so many more.

PHAROAH SANDERS AND FLOATING POINTS

BUDDY GUY

SEPT 6 8PM

Buddy Guy

Christone "Kingfish" Ingram

The blues-rock star who's brought the sweet sounds of Chicago to the world makes his Hollywood Bowl return with his Damn Right Farewell tour! Buddy Guy is an eight-time Grammy winner and a guitar slinger whose slick take on the rough-and-ready style of the Windy City has made him one of the most beloved blues musicians of all time. As The New York Times recently said, "Any opportunity to spend [time] in the company of Buddy Guy is an opportunity not to be missed," and we couldn't agree more. Christone "Kingfish" Ingram kicks off the night.

SEPT 20 8PM

Promises featuring Floating Points with Shabaka Hutchings, Kieran Hebden, Dan Snaith, Kara-Lis Coverdale, Hinako Omori, and John Escreet

An all-star lineup performs Promises, the acclaimed 2021 album-length composition recorded with the late tenor saxophonist Pharoah Sanders.

JULY 12 8PM

Charlie Wilson

Charlie Wilson—a.k.a. Uncle Charlie—returns to the Bowl! The R&B icon, whose career has spanned over four decades, brings his must-see show full of hits from his days as lead singer of the Gap Band ("Outstanding," "You Dropped a Bomb on Me," "Party Train") and from his solo career ("Charlie, Last Name Wilson," "There Goes My Baby," "You Are," "I'm Blessed"). Feel the funk on a hot summer night!

JOE BONAMASSA

AUG 9 8PM

Joe Bonamassa with Orchestra

Joe Bonamassa got his start at the age of 12, opening a tour for the legendary B.B. King. In the years since, he's played alongside some of the biggest names in music and still hasn't reached his peak. The three-time Grammy nominee has topped the Billboard blues charts a record-breaking 25 times with his signature take on the blues. Be there for his Hollywood Bowl debut, when he'll team up with an orchestra for a special concert unlike anything he's done before.

AUG 23 8PM

Herbie Hancock

Herbie Hancock simply can't stay still. Since making his debut with the Chicago Symphony Orchestra as an 11-year-old in 1952, the legendary award-winning pianist has done it all: cool Blue Note jazz, cooking with Miles Davis' Second Great Quintet, going far out with his Mwandishi band, getting funky with Head Hunters, and collaborating with an incredible range of artists. There's no telling what he'll do as he makes his return to the Bowl—but you can bet it'll be unforgettable.

SEPT 13 8PM

Jacob Collier with the LA Phil

Los Angeles Philharmonic
Thomas Wilkins, conductor

With an ambitious, universal sound that encompasses orchestral composition, folk songwriting, jazz, R&B, rap, and pop, multi-instrumentalist Jacob Collier already has five Grammy wins under his belt and has teamed up with musicians the world over—everybody from SZA to Coldplay to Hans Zimmer. Now he's adding another major collaboration to the list: Thomas Wilkins and the LA Phil.

Steel Pulse
Third World

A star-filled lineup brings the spirit of Jamaica and the history of island music to the Bowl for the 21st edition of Reggae Night.

BERES HAMMOND

AUG 13 7PM
Maggie Rogers
Alvvays

Producer, songwriter, and performer Maggie Rogers' shows are equal parts euphoric and intimate and have become one of her strongest calling cards. A mesmerizing live act, her path winds its way to Hollywood for her Bowl debut. Alvvays' latest album, Blue Rev, is a revelatory set of songs that Pitchfork calls "a feast." It's a compulsively lovable joyride confirming the quintet's place atop a new generation of winning, whip-smart indie rock.

SEPT 17 7PM
Artists to be announced

SU2 / 3 SUNDAY EVENINGS

AUG 6 7PM
Portugal. The Man • Chicano Batman
Say She She

Portugal. The Man started off playing hardcore in Wasilla, Alaska. Now they're a chart-topping, Grammy-winning, festival-headlining rock band whose song "Feel It Still" seemed to top every radio chart on Earth. Chicano Batman has an incredible knack for bringing together the sounds of LA County's Latinx communities: Delfonics-style soul, Afro-Cuban rumbas, wobbling funk-jazz. Say She She's discodelic soul takes inspiration from the defiant hitmaking of Nile Rodgers & CHIC, and their up-tempo grooves and dreamy harmonies are a natural fit to kick off a big night at the Bowl.

AUG 20 7PM
My Morning Jacket • Fleet Foxes

My Morning Jacket has released nine studio albums, three of which have been Grammy nominated for Best Alternative Music Album. The band's 2021 self-titled album "channels energy as loose and loud as their bombastic live act" (Esquire). Known globally for their live shows, My Morning Jacket works to embed every groove with moments of discovery and ecstatic catharsis. Fleet Foxes are no strangers to harmony, having built an extraordinarily sturdy form of folk-rock that takes a page from prog while they reach to the heavens with their voices.

SEPT 24 7PM
Los Auténticos Decadentes
Additional artist to be announced

It's a celebration of Argentina! Rockers Los Auténticos Decadentes became one of the Americas' greatest bands by forging a wide-open style that encompasses ska, cumbia, reggae, bolero, and more. That open-mindedness has made them one of Latin America's most influential groups, and won them a multigenerational fanbase that's drawn to their high-energy, cathartic sounds.

SU3 / 4 SUNDAY EVENINGS

JULY 16 7:30PM
Sparks
They Might Be Giants

The internationally acclaimed and utterly unique pop pioneers Sparks—Los Angeles' own Ron and Russell Mael, stars of the recent hit documentary movie The Sparks Brothers—bring their "unlimited genius" to this special hometown show. Grammy-winning They Might Be Giants are a beloved perpetual motion machine that, after 35 years, continues to deliver a live show that is melodic, upbeat, energetic, spontaneous, and even virtuosic.

JULY 30 7:30PM
Everybody Rise!
A Sondheim Celebration

Kevin Stites, conductor

The extraordinary emotional range of Stephen Sondheim is on full display for one unforgettable night. Join us for a journey through the world of the most celebrated figure in the history of musical theater, with guest vocalists and an orchestra bringing his iconic songs to the stage.

MAXWELL

THEY MIGHT BE GIANTS

SEPT 3 7:30PM
Air Supply
Michael Bolton

Two soft-rock heavyweights team up for a night of feathery melodies and unforgettable hits. Air Supply's "All Out of Love" and "Lost in Love" made them stars, while Grammy winner Michael Bolton's songs of time, love, and tenderness—like "When A Man Loves A Woman" and "How Am I Supposed to Live Without You"—have created memories for generations.

SEPT 10 7:30PM
Fireworks Finale:
Maxwell

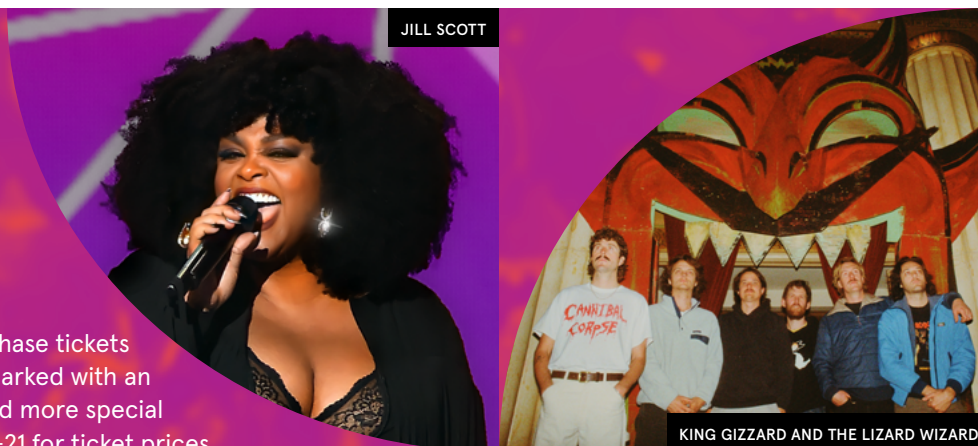

Three-time Grammy winner Maxwell sets it off in our Fireworks Finale, hooking his supple and soulful R&B—and three decades of hits—to elegant backing from his veteran touring band.

Pre-purchased tickets have boarding preference; day-of ticket purchases at the lots are not guaranteed. Please arrive at least 15 minutes before scheduled departure.

Park & Ride lot locations:

Acadia	Pasadena
Chatsworth	Rowland Heights
Culver City	Santa Monica
Downey	Sherman Oaks
East LA	Torrance
El Monte	Westwood
Lakewood	Willowbrook NEW

Park & Ride tickets will be made available at a later date. Lots may sell out prior to concert date; advance purchase recommended. Lot locations may change. Parking fees may apply at some parking lots. Visit our website for the most up-to-date information.

BOWL SHUTTLE EASIEST

Park free at most nearby shuttle lots* and take a shuttle to the Bowl. $6/person, round trip.

Ventura Blvd. Lot (formerly Lots A & B)

Ventura Blvd., near Lankershim

LA Zoo Parking Lot (formerly Lot C)

Ovation Hollywood Lot (formerly Hollywood & Highland; Lot D) *(parking fee required)

Burbank Metrolink Lot NEW

METRO

Ride the Metro and simplify your trip! Exit at Hollywood/Highland (Ovation Hollywood Lot) or Universal (Ventura Blvd. Lot) and finish your trip with a shuttle ride. Valid TAP cards will be accepted at the Ventura Blvd. and Ovation Hollywood shuttle lots (LA Zoo Parking Lot not included). The TAP card will be verified and must be valid and active. Travel must have occurred within the previous two hours (via bus or subway).

RIDESHARE AND TAXI

Rideshare and other vehicle drop-offs and pickups are permitted only in Parking Lot B. Entrance to Parking Lot B is at the intersection of Odin St. and Highland Ave.

PARKING AT THE BOWL NEW

Stacked parking will be available to pre-purchase online this spring for lots B, C, and D. Lots may sell out in advance, so don't wait to purchase night-of. If available, cash or credit card accepted for night-of purchase. hollywoodbowl.com/parking

ACCESSIBLE PARKING

Bowl parking, including accessible parking, is limited and often sells out in advance. Other options include Park & Ride buses and transportation from shuttle lots. hollywoodbowl.com/accessibility-info

CLUB 101 SUPPORT THE LA PHIL BY JOINING CLUB 101

Enjoy sought-after perks and special events designed to enhance your experience at our summer homes, the Hollywood Bowl and The Ford. As a leading nonprofit arts organization, the LA Phil thrives through the generous support of music-lovers just like you. Join Club 101 this summer and you'll join a community of givers who keep music alive all year round. Plus, make your gift go twice as far! LA Phil Board Member Jay and Deanie Stein will match your Club 101 gift, dollar-for-dollar, up to $101,000 by September 30. Join at hollywoodbowl.com/club101. Interested in other types of support? Visit hollywoodbowl.com/give.

The Los Angeles Philharmonic Association operates the Hollywood Bowl on behalf of Los Angeles County, and thanks the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors for its valued cooperation, financial funding, and support to bring great performing arts to the people of Los Angeles: Janice Hahn, Fourth District and Chair; Hilda L. Solis, First District; Holly J. Mitchell, Second District; Lindsey P. Horvath, Third District; and Kathryn Barger, Fifth District. In addition to featuring spectacular music, the Hollywood Bowl is one of 181 Los Angeles County Parks. The Hollywood Bowl thanks the Los Angeles County Department of Parks & Recreation and Director Norma Edith Garcia-Gonzalez for their partnership, as well as the Los Angeles County Metropolitan Transportation Authority for its support of the Park & Ride program, and our many sponsors and donors for their generosity. The Music & Artistic Director Chair held by Gustavo Dudamel is endowed by a gift to the LA Phil from the Walt and Lilly Disney Foundation. The Creative Chair held by John Adams is endowed by a gift to the LA Phil from John and Samantha Williams.
